

BLESSED TOMORROW UNETY PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Blessed Tomorrow launched Unety to provide a platform that connects congregations with both attractive funding and qualified contractors for sustainability projects that improve the triple bottom line of houses of worship. With the Unety platform, houses of worship will be able to instantly plan projects, shop for vendors, and access one of the largest networks of its kind in the U.S.

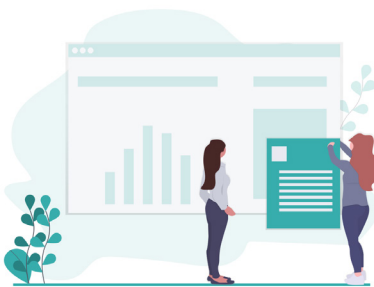

1. Get preapproved

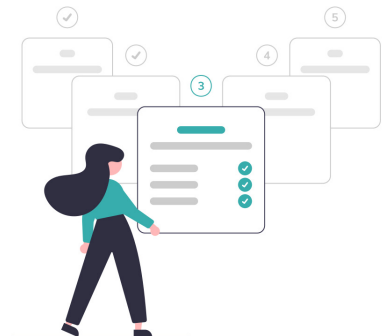

2. Find a contractor

3. Apply for quotes from lenders

4. Compare quotes and choose a lender

Learn more

Tools to support the program

Prequalify a House of Worship in Minutes

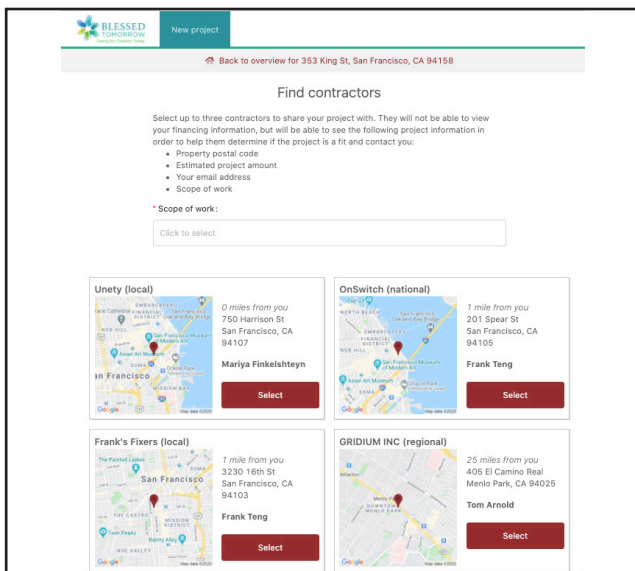

Easily search for your house of worship. With coverage across 90% of the U.S., Unety instantly prequalifies your property for the vendors you need to complete your project.

Log In View

Search for Qualified Contractors

Find specialized contractors in your area for your specific projects. All contractors are vetted and qualified by local or national utility companies.

Search for Contractors

Smart Project Funding

Access multiple project financing options and connect with dozens of lenders within the platform. Easy to navigate, Unety provides a comparison of financing options and forecasts which options are the best match for your needs.

Back to overview for 29 Norman Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11222

Your funding options

	Loan	On-bill	EFA
	Loan is a long- or short-term contract. You may use it to pay for a wide variety of projects. Payments are made monthly to the loan provider.	On-bill is a short-term contract that provides financing for qualifying renovation projects that reduce utility bills with no money down. Payments are made on your utility bill.	EFA is a mid- or short-term contract associated with new equipment, such as a boiler. It is a hybrid between a loan and a lease. Payments are made monthly.
	Available	Available	Available
Close time	✓	✓	✓
Project type	✓	✓	✓
Project size	✓	✓	✓
Upfront cost	✗	✓	▲
Contract duration	✓	✗	✗
Ability to sell	▲	▲	▲
Borrowing capacity	✗	✓	▲
Tax deductions	✓	▲	✓

Compare Financing

For more information