

One Home One Future

A Generational Multi-Faith Climate Justice Campaign

Together, we are called by our faith to care for our given and shared home. We will work toward a healthy world and thriving local communities by visibly supporting clergy and congregations, within and across faiths, in a changing climate.

One Home One Future is a multifaith campaign to strengthen vitality, relevance, and community connection across generations in local congregations nationwide. It is a coalition effort of faith denominations and organizations in the US working for visible and collective climate action by faith leaders. This will educate, activate, and empower clergy, congregants, youth, and all spiritual people in meaningful and just solutions locally, regionally, and nationally in ways that are accessible, positive, and empowering.

We can meet these goals if we all do our part. We can care for our congregations and our climate at the same time. We have a strong foundation! Majorities of Americans are concerned (75%) about climate¹, and 77% will support solutions².

Campaign participants will receive free congregational toolkits with a banner to hang in front of your house of worship and access to training and guides, library of worship and educational resources, action sheets, webinars and webcasts, retreat resources, mentoring, programming opportunities, and events and online community of practice to connect and collaborate within and across faith traditions.
