

Blessed Tomorrow, the faith program of ecoAmerica, is a coalition of diverse religious partners working to advance climate solutions in faithful service to God. We are united under a call to serve as faithful stewards of creation, offering free, practical resources, ideas, events, and trainings in language that is positive, familiar, and based on ecoAmerica's research.

Blessed Tomorrow's Climate Ambassador Program offers a free, self-paced, online training, or a free group training to equip faith leaders with the knowledge, hands-on experience, and resources to speak and take action on climate change in their congregations and local communities. This 3-hour training is open to people of all faiths, will soon be available in Spanish, and a specialized training for Clergy. Complete the training and become part of the vibrant community of thousands of Climate Ambassadors across the country to magnify the impact.

Blessed Tomorrow's 7-part film series, Caring for the Earth: Stories from Faith Communities, comes with a discussion guide for congregations to build knowledge, have deep discussions, and then engage in creation care and climate solutions. The guide also includes a Worship + Sermon series kit that aligns with the film themes. The 20-minute films highlight over 30 powerful voices of Christian, Muslim, Indigenous, Baha'i, and Jewish faith leaders from 14 states, including clergy, youth leaders, and interfaith organizers, who are leading with hope, compassion, and courage.

Blessed Tomorrow is a proud partner and the facilitator of the One Home One Future initiative. Whether you are just getting started or want to elevate your existing creation care efforts, One Home One Future is for you and your congregation. This initiative was created to strengthen vitality, relevance, and community connection across generations in local congregations nationwide. One Home One Future provides a robust resource hub collated from its 50 denomination and faith organization partners.

Together, we are making a difference. Subscribe to the Blessed Tomorrow